

Healthy Hands

Foaming hand wash with
Menthol and Tea Tree Oil

Now there is a healthy way to keep your hands clean and soft while ridding your skin of illness causing bacteria. HEALTHY HANDS is an antiseptic handwash formulated with Tee Tree Oil and Menthol. It is a natural alternative to conventional antibacterial hand soaps. This homeopathic foaming hand soap quickly decreases bacteria on the skin and is even effective on Salmonella and E.coli organisms. HEALTHY HANDS has a fresh mint scent.

Directions: Apply approximately a teaspoonful to hands and rub for 30 seconds. Rinse.
